Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Marianne Reed, and I'm contacting you to apply for the Cosmetologist position at Sweet Basil Salon. I'm a licensed cosmetologist with seven years of experience in hair care, skincare and nail technology, and I'm eager to use my expert customer service and sales skills to help expand your business. As my loyal body of satisfied clients and portfolio of intricate designs show, I bring a commitment to high-quality and positive relationships that I'm certain would benefit Sweet Basil Salon.

During my four years at Candycane Designs, I've serviced over 650 clients, performing services like haircuts, highlights, acrylic nails, facials and eyelash extensions. I'm aware Sweet Basil Salon recently began offering eyelash extensions, a program I'd love to help grow. I research current trends in hair and nails to ensure I can achieve the most popular styles, and I recommend exciting new products to the salon manager regularly to increase sales and satisfy our customers. The products I recommended last quarter, including a popular facial serum, a retinol cream and a hair mask, brought in over $2,000 in profits.

I prioritize client satisfaction, earning a 98% approval rating from my clients at Candycane Designs. I maintain an active social media presence, sharing photos of my work regularly. According to our new client intake forms, 33% of first-time clients reference my social media accounts as their reason for visiting the salon. I have in-depth knowledge of affordable and luxury health and beauty products, and I analyze each of my client's needs to recommend products that align with their conditions, styles and budget.

With high-quality results, dedicated clients and a proven ability to increase sales, I'm enthusiastic about the impact I could make at Sweet Basil Salon. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and considering me for the position. If you have any questions about my qualifications, please contact me by phone or email. I hope to hear from you soon.

Respectfully,

Martha Olive
